SATURDAY, MARCH 1,1879.

MEMPHIS is in the midst of great tribulations and trials. Their charter gone, their citizens are individually liable for the city debt; a receiver appointed by a Judge who cares nothing for all their growlings; their streets in an almost impassible condition and their famed Nicholson pavements rotting and resolving themselves into nests of pestilence; the horrors of the last plague not yet forgotten, and the memory of it intruding itself into their merriest moments; their district, according to their own papers, the filthiest in Christendom; and now drummers of houses of other cities are spreading reports all over the South that grim Bronze John is still holding carnival in their midst, thus injuring their trade. Veri- slope: ly either the Lord leveth and nine-tenths are adult males. The 500 Cases Kip Brogans, the wicked are full of wretched-

ONCE upon a time there lived a poet, popularly denominated Bobby Burns, a man without learning but with a great deal of wisdom, who wrote that "the best laid plans of men and mice aft gang aglee." Ever since then, the course of events has been a standing commentary on the truth of his sentence. Just now the Democratic leaders of the next Congress are gnashing their teeth and tearing their hair because mother, nor brother nor sister; no another little circumstance is about to add its voice to the proof of the affection. To do this, they decided to make one of the appropriation bills a beast of burden to stand up under the load of a lot of riders repealing the juror's test oath, reducing the pay of jurors, and repealing cember. the Election Laws. This last clause was rather significant, in the face of all the convictions, sentences to the penitentiary, fines, &c., that were being made under this law; but it is not to be expected that a party, prospering in fraud, intimidation and bare-faced bribery, would care anything for this. They knew that a Republican Senate would never consent to this action, and thus It was done.

But something turned up they announced that the National members-elect to the next Congress had met and organized to hold the baltle band of seventeen, and that there sey, of Minnesota. were three Democratic members with strong greenback proclivities that -Kelly, Phelps and Wright. This hospitals, almshouses, houses of refuge, increased their number to twenty, and even jails. and unless the Democrats secure a majority of these they can not elect their candidate to the offices floor that is was the function of editors of the House. To do this they must agree to

The Democrats are now to choose between the two horns of a dilemma. On the one hand they must loose their hold on the office and perquisites of the House; or on the other, they must loose the cooperation of the honest money element of their party. They may, perhaps, manage to keep off of Scylla, but teey will unavoidably be wrecked on Charybdus.

The last election shows very plainly that the friends of greenback, irredeemable, fiat money are vastly in the minority in the country, and that a canvass made on that platform must inevitably be lost to them in 1889. Either way they turn they find enormous difficulties looming up before them; and with soft money, cipher dispatches, fraud, and intimidation Gen. Bragg and Ben. CHINESE EMIGRATION.

Senator Blaine has written a long letter to the New York Tribune giving his reasons for his vote on the Chinese Emigration bill. It is decidedly the strongest statement of the case we have seen. He denies that it is any violation of the Burlingame treaty, because, as he says, ninety-nine out of every hundred Chinese who come to this country, come, not as emigrants, but under a contract which makes them slaves to the companies that bring them. He gives the following sickening picture of the Chinese population on the Pacific

I speak of this from abounding testimony-largely from those who have had personal opportunity to study the subject in its revolting details. In the entire Chinese population of the Pacific Coast scarcely one family is to be found; no hearthstone of comfort, no fireside of joy; no father nor child reared by parents; no domestic and ennobling influences; no ties of graded beyond all description, the femakes holding and dishonoring that At the beginning of the session secred name, being sold and transferred from one man to another, without shame and without fear; one woman being at the same time the wife to several men. THE KNOXVILLE CHRONICLE FOR 1879.

Subscrib, for a Good, Reliable News

The DAILY CHRONICLE, and WEEKLY WHIG AND CHRONICLE, will be kept up during the year 1879 to their usual high standard. By enterprise, accurateness, and close attention to the wants of our readers, we hope to merit a continuation of the liberal patronage heretofore extended these journals.

Nearly nine years ago, when there was not a Republican daily in the State, and only two or three in the South, we commenced the publication of the CHRONICLE. In all these years we have battled for Republican principles, and see no reason to change our course now. Hence we shall continue to publish a truthful, reliable Republican journal, not the organ of any man or clique, but the outspoken and fearless advocate of principles, measures and men, best calculated to promote the welfare of the country and the Republican party.

We will endeavor to make our agricultural columns worth more to farmers than our subscription price.

As a newspaper our publications shall not be excelled in the State. In addition to our telegraphic dispatches from all parts of the world, our readers shall have the benefit of correspondence and every other means through which reliable information is obtained,

Each number of the paper will contain selections made with special reference to the home circle. We will continue to avoid everything calculated to contaminate, and will publish a paper that may be taken without question within the sacred precints of the family circle.

Our market reports shall have close attention, and be made entirely correct and reliable.

We call upon all persons interested in the publication of our independent, fearless, reliable Republican journal to come to our aid and assist in extending the circulation of the DAILY CHRONICLE and WEEKLY WHIG AND CHRONICLE.

In view of the financial pressure upon the country and the general reduction of values, we have decided to reduce the price of the WEEKLQ WHIG AND CHRONICLE to suit the times. In the future we will send our weekly paper to subscribers on the following.

TERMS: One copy one year.....$1.50

To any person who will send us a club of ten subscribers with the cash, $15.00, we will send one copy extra. Payment will be required invariably in advance.
